DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-10, drawn to an apparatus for an integrated circuit (IC), classified in class 324, subclass 537.
  - II. Claims 4-6, drawn to an integrated circuit burn-in system, classified in class 324, subclass 537.
  - III. Claims 7-10, drawn to burn-in system with a thermal sense circuit, classified in class 324, subclass 755.
  - IV. Claims 11-32, drawn to method of testing integrated circuits, classified in class 324, subclass 760.

A) The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions [I, II and III in a first set] and [IV in a second set] are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process such as an integrated circuit having a storage circuit, an integrated circuit burn-in system having IC comprising interface circuitry and a burn-in system having a fixture and a temperature-altering mechanism.

Art Unit: 2829

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I, II and II is not required for Group IV, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

B) If Inventions I, II or III are elected, a further restriction is required as stated below:

4. Inventions [III in a first set] and [I and II in a second set] are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombinations as claimed because the combination has a temperature-altering mechanism to alter an ambient temperature of an IC which is not require in the subcombinations. The subcombination has separate utility such as an integrated circuit comprising a storage circuit [Invention I] and an integrated circuit burn-in system comprising at least one IC comprising an interface circuitry [Invention II].

5. Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination has a computer system having a processor operating under the control of a computer program. The subcombination has separate utility such as an integrated circuit comprising a storage circuit.

Art Unit: 2829

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group III is not required for Group I nor is not require for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

C) If Invention IV is elected, a further restriction is required as stated below:

7. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: Species of Figs 5A-5B,

Species of Figs. 6A-6B, and

Species of Figs. 7A-7B.

Applicants are required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicants are advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Applicants are reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jermele M. Hollington whose telephone number is (571) 272-1960. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (9:00-4:30 EST) First Friday Off.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Kamand Cuneo can be reached on (517) 272-1957. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
